INTRA ECO TAPE: FUTURE PROOF FOR PLANET AND ANIMAL

Annually, no less than 15 million synthetic hoof bandages are used on lame cows by hoof trimmers, professional livestock farmers and veterinarians worldwide. These non-degradable hoof tapes (approx. 7 km²), end up in our environment in waste containers, manure pits or on the field. Intra Eco Tape, the new degradable tape preserves its original properties such as a good stretchability, easy-tear and great adhesive properties.
